DETAILED ACTION

Due to the complex nature of the claims, no request for an oral election is being made. Please see MPEP 812.01.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-16 are drawn to a method of treating disease resulting from malformed proteins from a mammal comprising administering to said mammal a therapeutically effective amount of a bis-cyclic compound; wherein said bis-cyclic compound is characterized by clearing malformed proteins and by an ability to cross a blood brain barrier of said mammal, classified in class 514, subclass 297.
- II. Claims 17 and 18 are drawn to a composition for treating livestock with malformed proteins comprising livestock feed and a bis-cyclic compound, classified in class 514, subclass 297.
- III. Claims 19 and 20 are drawn to a method for clearing malformed proteins from livestock with the administering of a pharmaceutically effective amount of a composition comprising livestock feed and a bis-cyclic compound, classified in class 514, subclass 297.
- IV. Claims 21 and 22 are drawn to a composition comprising livestock feed and a bis-compound comprising two tricyclic moieties covalently bound by a linking group, classified in class 514, subclass 297.

- V. Claims 24 and 25 are drawn to a composition comprising a pharmaceutically acceptable carrier and a bis-cyclic compound of general formula I (Acridine), classified in class 514, subclass 297.
- VI. Claims 26-28 are drawn to a compound, classified in class 562, various subclasses.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions II and I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make another and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case, that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process.

The six inventions are independent and distinct, each from the other as they have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification. Further, a reference, which anticipates any one of the above invention, would neither anticipate nor make obvious of the other inventions. Each such invention is capable of supporting its own patent. For these reasons, the restriction requirement is proper.

To be complete, applicants' response must include a provisional election even though the requirement may be traverse.

The applicants are required to elect a single invention for examination purposes.

The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
